Dear Len,

Thanks ever so much for both Pat's and my albums of the commissioning of the USS JOHN HANCOCK.
We each relive that fun day as we thumb through them and appreciate having this reminder of our association with the ship and with your shipyard.

I'm delighted the Navy is going to get the four Iranian destroyers and I'm sure you are too.

Thanks again, and all the best.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER

Dear Admiral Turner:

It was a pleasure to see you and your lovely wife again on the occasion of commissioning the USS JOHN HANCOCK (DD-981).

Your copy of the photograph album is enclosed as a memento of your visit.

Sincerely,
